"I have been working with the Albany Capital Center for several years in producing Home Shows and Bridal & Wedding Expos. The venue is extremely adaptable to all our needs. From contracting to facilitating our move in, every staff member is accessible, accommodating and a pleasure to work with. I would recommend this facility to any promoter."

TESTIMONIALS

"From the very start we knew that our event at The Albany Capital Center would be a success. We were thrilled that we were the first ever Pickleball Tournament to be played inside the beautiful convention hall. The electronic signage both indoors and outdoors added so much to the atmosphere of being a major event. Their support staff during the event was outstanding, always available and ready to pitch in whenever needed. From load in to load out, there was always helping hands. We look very forward to next year's event and for many years to come."

- SCOTT GREEN

Around the Post Pickleballh

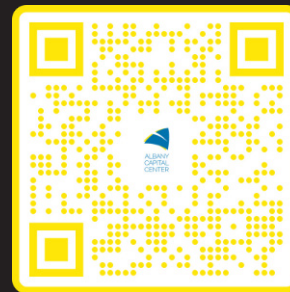

Working with the team at the Albany Capital Center is always a pleasure because of their attention to details, friendly attitudes, and flexibility. They make life so easy for meeting planning professionals so much, so we look at them as an extension of our staff. Our 2023 Winter Institute had some new complexities incorporated and the ACC staff not only supported us, but they surprised us with some beautiful details that added to the success of event which we were truly grateful. I look forward to our future events in the coming years."

NON-TECHNOLOGY SECTOR

Agriculture/Food:

Agriculture and local food systems account for about 10 percent of the Capital Region's employment. Notable area food and beverage producers include soft drink manufacturer Adirondack Beverages, spaghetti sauce maker Casa Visco, sausage manufacturer Belinski and several breweries, such as Druthers and Brown's Brewing.

Creative Economy:

The local creative industry employs more than 24,000 residents, with Columbia County having the nation's third highest concentration of independent artists. In all, there are 21 video game studios in the Capital Region employing 418 people, according to the CEG survey results. Sixteen of those studios are independent, working as contractors or volunteers.

Transportation and Logistics:

Our region employs over 14,000 individuals at hubs such as the Port of Albany, Port of Coeymans and fulfillment centers for companies such as Ace Hardware, Coca-Cola, FedEx, UPS and Target.
