ALBANY CONVENTION CENTER AUTHORITY

An American crossroads of history, commerce and culture.

The Albany Capital Center (ACC) stands as a thriving economic force and a testament to the innovative collaboration between the governments of New York State, Albany County, and the City of Albany, led by the Albany Convention Center Authority (ACCA), a New York State public authority.

As we regain stability following the challenges posed by the pandemic and embrace the resurgence of conventions, meetings, tradeshows, and social enterprises, the ACC and ACCA present this impressive track record of achievement.

HEAR FROM OUR MANAGEMENT TEAM AT LEGENDS GLOBAL:

'' Since we opened our doors [in 2017], it has become clear that the ACC fills a pivotal role in our community and makes critical contributions to Albany's economic development. I am extremely proud of the hard work done, the challenges of recent years that have been overcome and the team that has made it all possible. It is a great privilege for me to lead this talented team into a new era, where we will continue to deliver events that captivate our attendees and provide high-quality facility management services from Legends Global that consistently surpass expectations."
