Albany Capital Center Announces Tech Valley Hospitality Shuttle as Preferred Transportation Partner

ALBANY, N.Y. – The Albany Capital Center (ACC) is excited to announce its engagement with Tech Valley Hospitality Shuttle as its preferred transportation partner. The partnership will allow the Albany Capital Center to include Tech Valley Hospitality in its event bids, providing potential and current clients with the assurance of reliable transportation to and from the ACC for their events.

Tech Valley Hospitality Shuttle was founded by Trent Griffin-Braaf, who merged his experience in the hospitality industry with effective transportation. He saw a need in the Capital Region for a transportation service guests could count on that would take them to and from the train station, airport, hotel and ACC without hassle. This partnership allows guests to have confidence their transportation needs are taken care of prior to their arrival.

“Our partnership with Tech Valley Hospitality Shuttle allows us to expand on our continued growth,” said Doug McClaine, general manager of the Albany Capital Center. “By offering the reliable services of Tech Valley Hospitality Shuttle as our preferred partner, we’re able to relieve clients of planning another aspect of their event.”

“Tech Valley Hospitality Shuttle is proud to partner with the Albany Capital Center as its preferred transportation provider,” said Trent Griffin-Braaf, CEO of Tech Valley Hospitality Shuttle. “The ACC has a proven track record of bringing the best events to Albany, and we are excited to provide safe and economic transportation to visitors coming into downtown.”

Since its opening in 2017, the Albany Capital Center has generated more than $37 million in new visitor spending according to Discover Albany. Drawing more than 60,000 hotel room stays, the ACC continues to attract organizations from various markets to the Albany area.
